

Intermediate Creed

To build true confidence through knowledge in the mind, honesty in the heart, and strength in the body.

To keep friendship with one another and build a strong and happy community.

Never fight to achieve selfish ends but, to develop might for right.